Communication takes on extra significance in the first week of June.

Jupiter has just shifted into mutable air sign Gemini and meets up with Mercury on the 4th. This is likely to be a hectic time of heightened communication. A host of small details need to be tied together and sorted. Projects that have been just concepts or works in progress, now need to be completed. For me, this will be when I am finalising my new website and making sure that it's going to work properly before it goes live... fingers and toes crossed!

Venus reaches superior conjunction on the 5th, and is directly behind the Sun, remaining there for the New Moon on the 6th. This alignment of Venus, Sun, Moon and Earth highlights the social connections associated with Gemini, making new contacts possible and has the potential to foster significant relationships.

GEMINI NEW MOON

Venus reaches superior conjunction at this Gemini New Moon. Not only that, but Venus is exactly aligned behind the Sun.

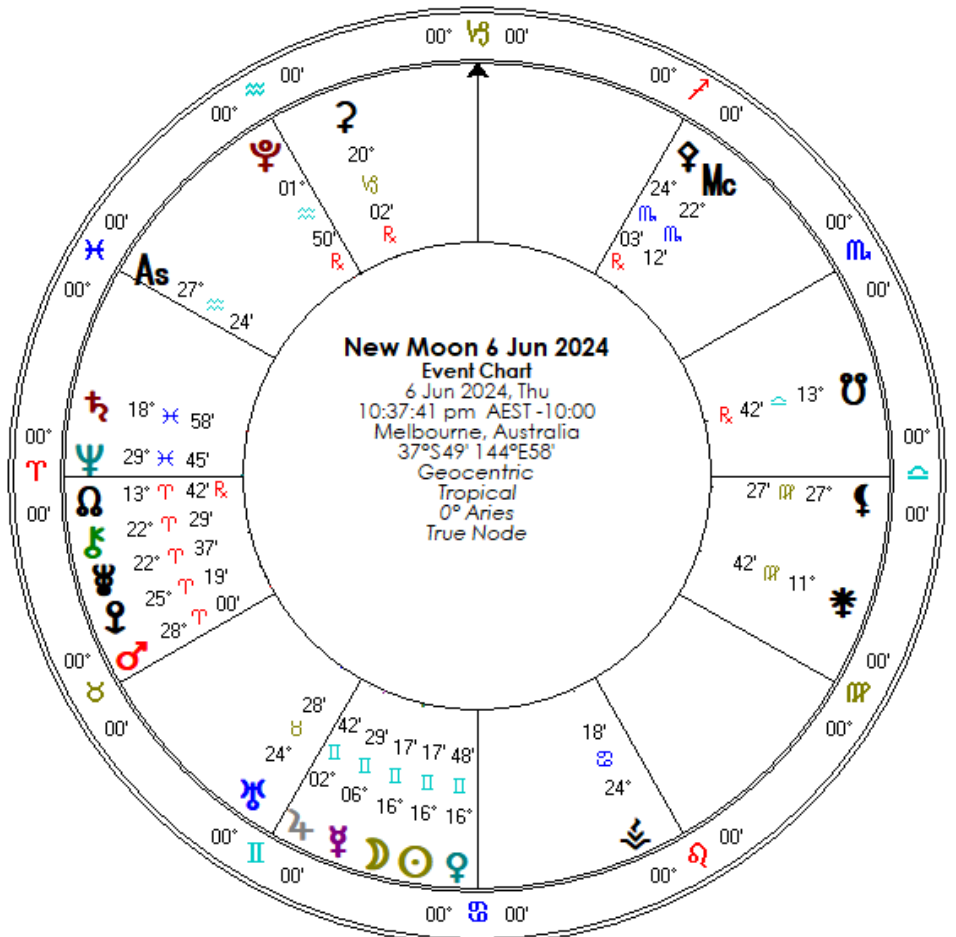

With the Sun, Moon and Venus squaring Saturn in Pisces, there are likely some boundary issues to work through. There could also be some worries and fears to manage.

ows a more serious mindset.

There is a uplifting conjunction of Jupiter and Mercury providing scope for handling daily activities, and planning ahead, but the square involving Saturn foreshad-

Chiron and Hygiea, both associated with health and healing, are very close to one another, with Eris and Mars nearby, highlighting personal health concerns and offering us solutions and healing options. Gemini offers solutions via communication and information.

You might recall some years ago we had a transit of Venus when Venus was at inferior conjunction and crossed the face of the solar disc...well this is a similar alignment, only Venus is on the other side of the Sun to Earth, at superior conjunction. The fact that this coincides with a New Moon, makes it extra special. It symbolises commitment to the most valued aspects of our lives.

CAPRICORN FULL MOON

This Full Moon happens just after the June solstice, so we see many of the same aspects in play.

Nebulous Neptune is involved here, and it will be a key feature at every solstice and equinox for at least the next 18 months while it's slowly drifting into Aries. This means that the Neptune archetype will be a focal point in world affairs for quite a while. Neptune's influence is often misleading, so there is a lot of uncertainty and potential for confusion.

On the plus side, Neptune provides the capacity to visualise creative solutions.

This Full Moon sets up a quincunx and semi-sextile arrangement with Pluto and Vesta.

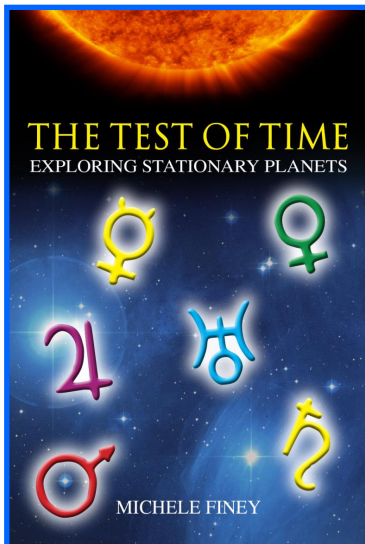

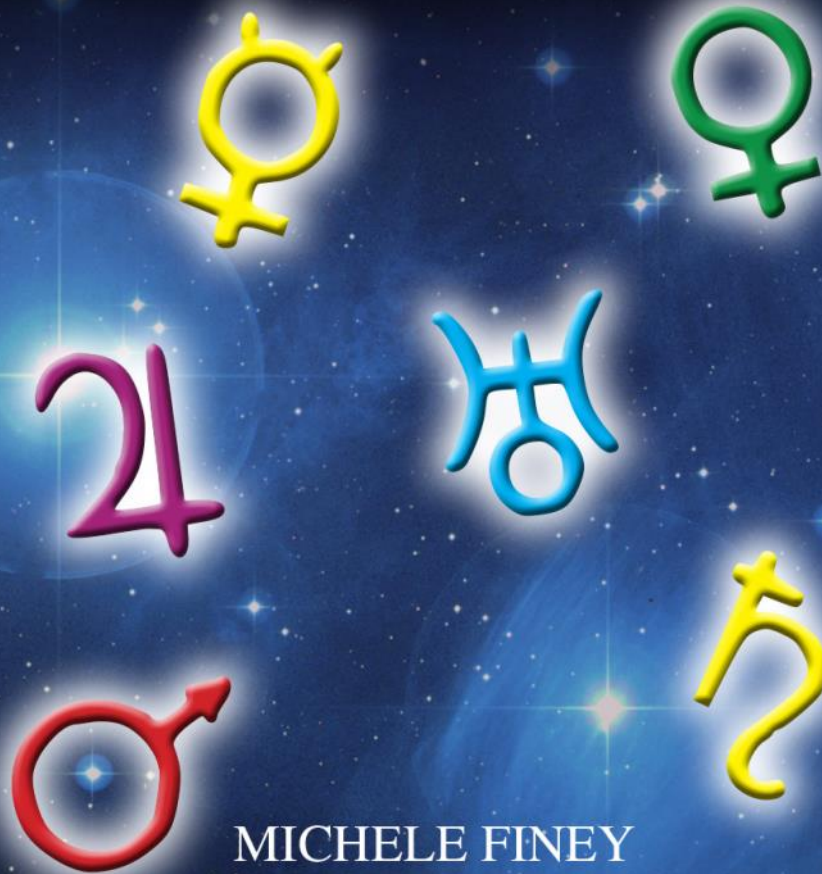

Vesta and Pluto are both associated with passion and focused intensity, but the quincunx delivers a shapeshifting energy to this Full Moon. This creates a somewhat tricky situation, where we could find it difficult to follow our passions and commitments. Unforeseen obstacles or dilemmas might force us to make adjustments and compromises. Quincunxes and semi-sextiles often force us to manage distractions that we would rather not have to face.

This book details my research into the 32-year cycle of Venus and Mars.

The symbolic connection between the celestial lovers is mirrored by their interaction as metals copper (Venus) and iron (Mars). This passionate exchange creates life on this planet and has immense impact across social settings and generations.

SOLSTICE

This solstice takes place just before the Full Moon and foreshadows a process of adjustment that could take some time to work through.

Pluto and Vesta are in opposition. This is a passionate and focused aspect which provides intense energy for honing in on specific issues or interests. But the semi-sextile/quincunx aspects they make to the Sun suggest a feeling of annoyance at having to manage a number of irritating distractions. Meanwhile, the Sun and Neptune are in a tight square. All this points towards a rather confusing and uncertain period ahead.

There is a helpful sextile from Mercury and Venus to Mars, which will pave the way for getting a lot of work done in this quarter, despite any distractions or confusion. So try to manage events with diplomacy while you knuckle down on what is most vital.

Chiron, Hygiea and Eris remain in close contact, so now is a good time to address any underlying health concerns.
