SCORPIO NEW MOON

Wow. This New Moon is incredible! Scorpio's two ruling planets, Mars and Pluto, are in a tight opposition! They are also located at the pivotal 29 degree mark.

This is a potentially explosive aspect, where tensions are escalating. Clearly in the world right now we don't want any more violence or tension, but looking at this powerful alignment I think we should make an effort to keep cool, calm and collected. The US election is just days away, so hopefully there will be no outbreaks of violence there.

Loyalties are on the line with Juno squaring both Mars and Pluto. Relationships are important to Juno, but she can be vindictive if she is betrayed.

Mercury and Uranus are in opposition offering us a wider perspective. So some positive vibrations are on offer with Venus and Jupiter providing a dose of happiness and fun, and a rather indulgent atmosphere as we head towards year end. While we might have strong views and opinions, we also have an opportunity to be generous and loving.

This 32-page astrology calendar is suitable for those who are new to astrology, students of astrology and the professional astrologer.

It includes an introductory section on astrology basics that explains the meaning of planets and signs. An easy reference guide, it examines prevailing astrological conditions and suggests ways to take advantage of opportunities as they arise. For professional astrologers this calendar replaces the need to constantly refer to your ephemeris. It provides easy access to relevant astrological data for general daily use. It also includes planetary information that is not found in ephemerides, such as lunar perigees, Supermoons, key positions of Venus and more.

TAURUS FULL MOON

Saturn stations direct within hours of this Full Moon, asking us to be responsible humans and act with integrity.

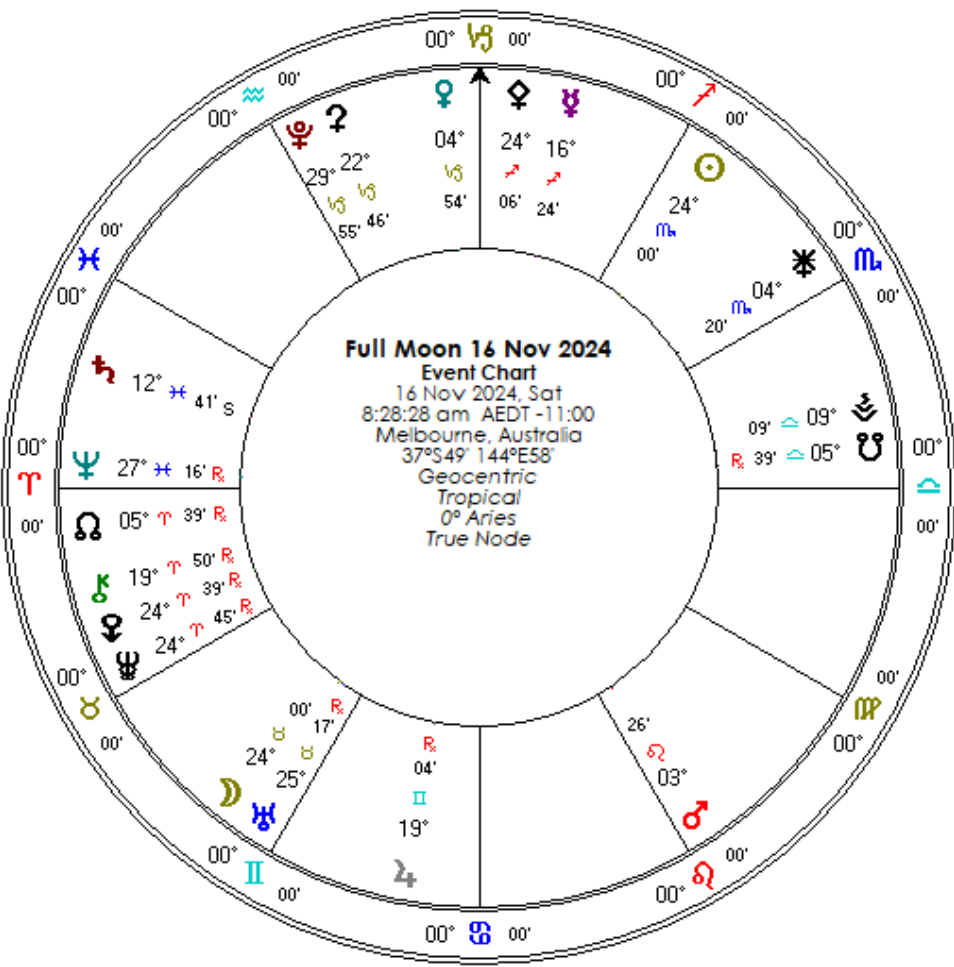

At the same time, radical Uranus joins the Moon so there is a desire to rebel against authority. Fortunately, there is a tight quintile aspect in play between Uranus-Moon and Saturn, offering creative solutions to this potential dilemma.

Mercury and Jupiter are in opposition and also in mutual reception, which calls for a shift in perspective. Those who are focused on their personal world and those who look at the big picture, can potentially set up a productive dialogue. This aspect can lead to catch-22 situations, but it does provide a pathway to look at things from another's perspective if we keep an open mind.

Four days after this Full Moon, Pluto will cross fully into Aquarius, signalling our transition into the future where we will be facing vast social changes and progressive technology over the coming 20+ years.

This book details my research into the 32-year cycle of Venus and Mars.

The symbolic connection between the celestial lovers is mirrored by their interaction as metals copper (Venus) and iron (Mars). This passionate exchange creates life on this planet and has immense impact across social settings and generations.

US ELECTION

The intense build up comes to a head this week with this powerful New Moon a few days before the US election. The US has been having a Pluto Return of late and there is also a Chiron Return in play. Both these intense cycles foreshadow themes of transformation through healing.

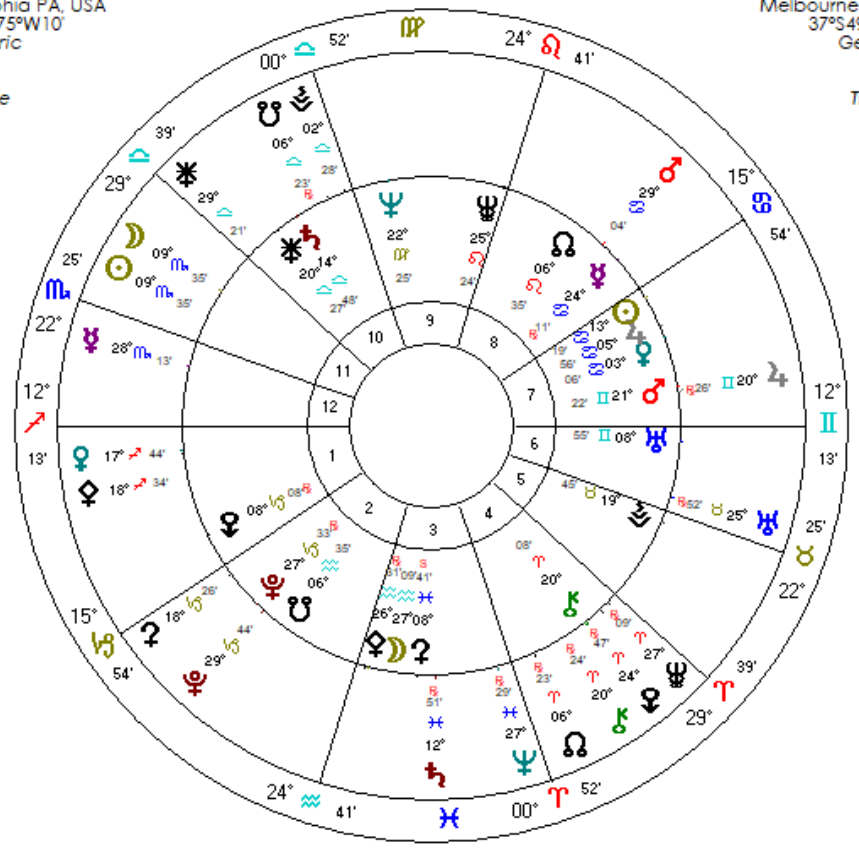

The Pluto Return has technically concluded though its impact is still lingering, while the Chiron Return has two further direct hits to come, one very soon and another in March 2025.

Transiting Neptune is also in the frame, as it approaches the IC in the Sibly chart. All these difficult transits highlight the need for social and policy changes in a raft of areas such as the health sector, gun control, and other reforms that bring about social healing.

The current New Moon sees transiting Jupiter on the US Mars, offering hope and an action plan going forward.

How will the vote turnout? The people are generally said to be represented by the Moon in national charts. The US Moon is in Aquarius, and it's squared by transiting Mercury and by transiting Uranus reflecting the polarising political views of left and right. These squares are in fixed signs, suggesting that opinions will be difficult to shift, yet the tension in this T-square is reaching a peak.

My hope is that we will have a result favouring Kamala Harris and with millions of Americans voting early, maybe the result will not be as close as the pollsters are predicting. Whatever the result, there's a lot of healing work ahead.
