- KEY EVENTS 2025

There are some powerful aspects heading our way this month. We can expect further extremes in temperature and in political matters especially in the early part of this month. At the February Full Moon there is a fixed grand cross in play. Mars and Jupiter will station direct this month and Mars is currently out of bounds.

Mars will be out of bounds for a while, and it's known for it's extreme antics. When it goes direct on Feb 24, it will still be out of bounds. In fact, Mars will be out of bounds until early April. The rhetoric will probably continue until then. While it's important to stand by one's values, it's also important to remain grateful and empathetic.

LEO FULL MOON

Ceres and Mercury join the Sun, ramping up the dialogue around climate change and the environment. This is the month of the most extreme weather on Earth. It's the hottest month in the southern hemisphere and the coldest in the north, but now we have seen the devastating winter fires in California, whipped up by intense winds.

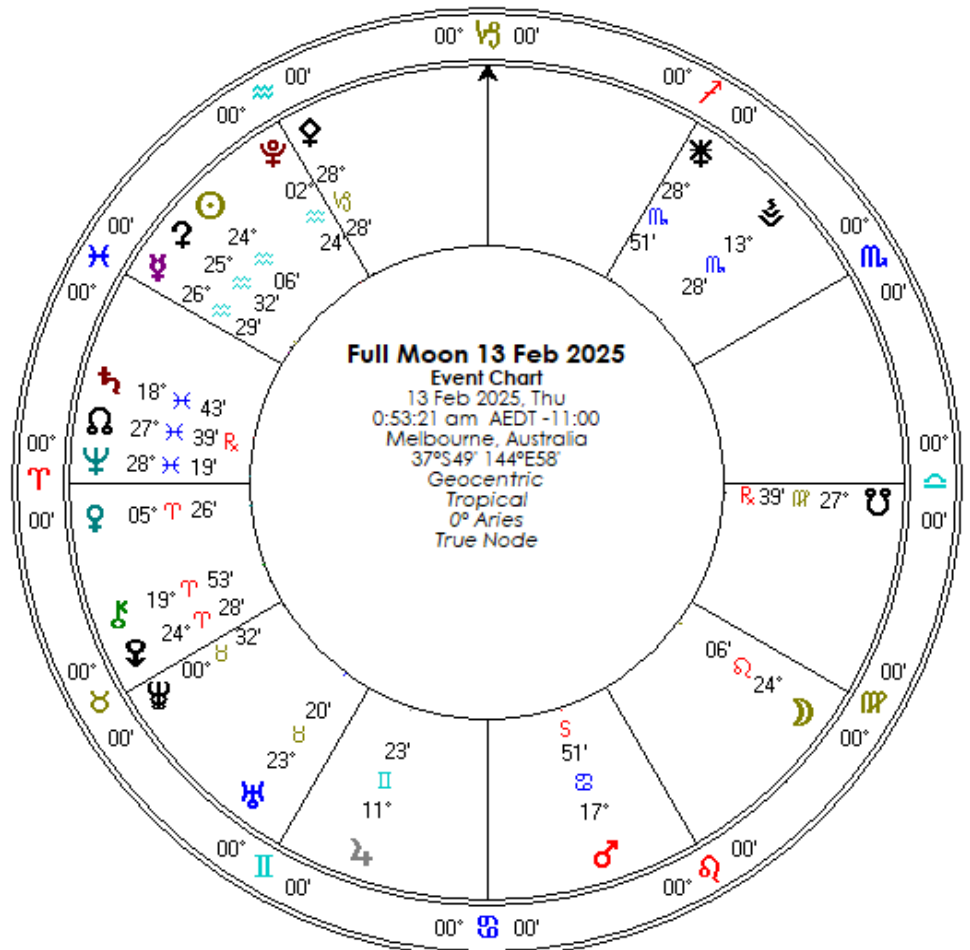

Mars is at a virtual standstill, and will station direct at 17CN00 on the 24th, squaring Chiron. There is the potential for wounded egos at this time. Mars is also out of bounds.

provide a distraction from the pain and trauma that many are feeling.

Despite our wounds and painful events, Mars and Saturn are helpful for rebuilding. Their water trine should provide some welcome relief for those who have been impacted by recent events.

Neptune and the North Node are tightly aligned, potentially taking us further down a rabbit hole, but this can also

This Full Moon is squaring maverick Uranus, known for its extremes, increasing the tension. Juno in Scorpio is also involved, setting off a fixed grand cross escalating this intense and emotional period.

PISCES NEW MOON

There's a long line up of planets in watery Pisces, including the North Node which continues to be tightly linked to nebulous Neptune. Meanwhile, Mercury and Saturn are focusing on hard work and important projects, so we can make headway now on our long term goals. It's also a good time to harness the imagination and make commitments to new projects.

Mars stations direct on the 24th, just as Venus is preparing to station retrograde, which happens on March 2nd.

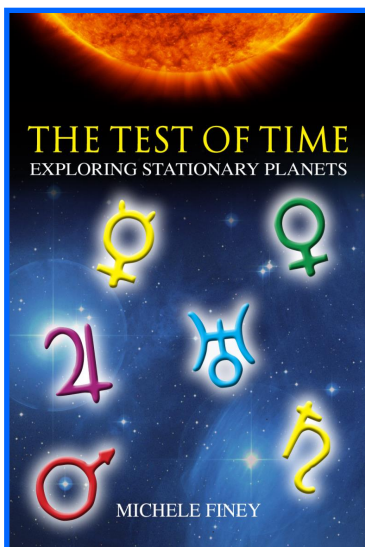

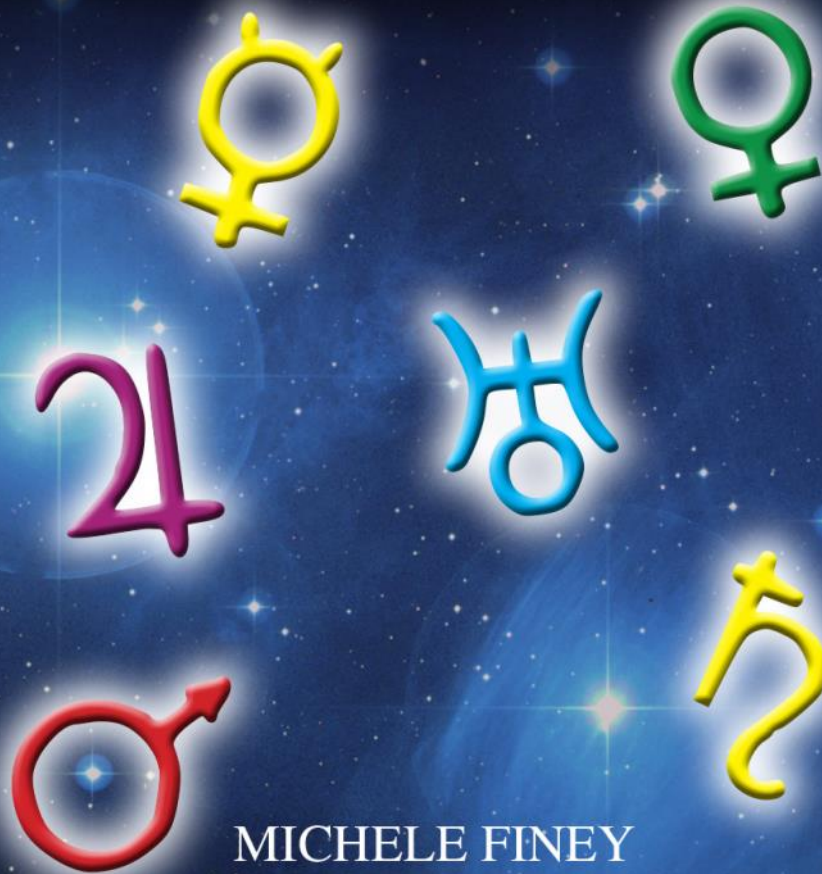

Venus and Mars have a special relationship and their heavenly dance often sees them experiencing turning points at the same time.

While Mars is now keen to get going with energy and enthusiasm returning, Venus starts to look within. She will instruct us to recommit to our core principles and personal values. Venus retrograde asks us to consider the value of our relationships, both personal and professional, and associated commitments.

KEY EVENTS 2025

In March, Neptune will shift into Aries, which is likely to shape our collective experiences for the next decade and beyond. I recently spoke about the symbols, themes and history of this cycle. If you want to take a closer look at what Neptune in Aries might deliver over the coming 13 years, you can get the recording here.

A host of outer planets change signs in 2025. While Jupiter always changes signs each year, Uranus only does so every 7-8 years, Saturn every 2-3 years and Neptune every 13 years. Here are the key dates for these sign shifts...

Neptune in Aries 30 March

Saturn in Aries 25 May

Jupiter in Cancer 10 June

Uranus in Gemini 7 July

Saturn in Pisces 1 Sept

Neptune in Pisces 22 Oct

Uranus in Taurus 8 Nov

Apart from these important ingresses, there are always stations to note throughout the year. Check if any of these stations align with planets in your birth chart and consider their significance when they come around. Even when they don't align with natal planets, stations can offer insights into the nature of the stationing planet.
