Welcome to another year of INsight!

In 2025 a number of outer planets are changing signs. Neptune will cross into Aries, Uranus will shift into Gemini , Saturn will move into Aries and Pluto has just recently crossed fully into Aquarius. All this suggests we are in for a substantial year of change. It's a year of transition as we head towards 2026 which is when these changes really heat up.

CANCER FULL MOON

Significantly, the Nodal axis has just shifted signs as we start a new year. The North Node aligns with nebulous Neptune, an aspect that will tighten throughout January. Nodal shifts deliver a subtle change in perceptions.

The South Node in Virgo asks us to trust our own assessment and analysis of events and the North Node in Pisces guides us to embrace compassion and understanding. Hopefully, this will inspire the world towards a more peaceful year ahead.

Mars continues his backward steps in Cancer, joining the Moon and draws a useful trine with Neptune. Moon-Mars can be volatile, but Neptune and the Nodes should calm things down.

In March, Neptune will shift into Aries, which is likely to shape the world and our collective experiences for the next decade and beyond.

I recently spoke about the symbols, themes and history of this cycle. If you want to take a closer look at how Neptune in Aries might shape the coming 13 years you can get the recording here.

AQUARIUS NEW MOON

This New Moon introduces us to the Chinese Year of the Wood, or Green Snake. This symbol fosters personal development and transformation, making it an ideal time for self-improvement.

low suit four days later, thrusting us into a busy agenda of activity. There is a tendency to rush and take risks with these stations, so ensure that you don't go too far and jump ahead when you should tread carefully.

Pluto and Mercury sit together and rise before the New Moon, so there is a powerful agenda and passionate voices speaking out about how the future should be created. With retro Mars and Athena in opposition, this New Moon is likely to spark some heated debate.

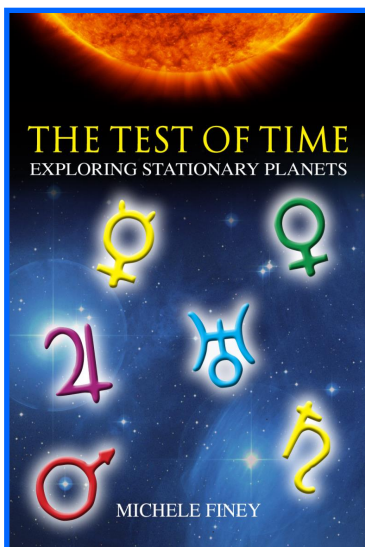

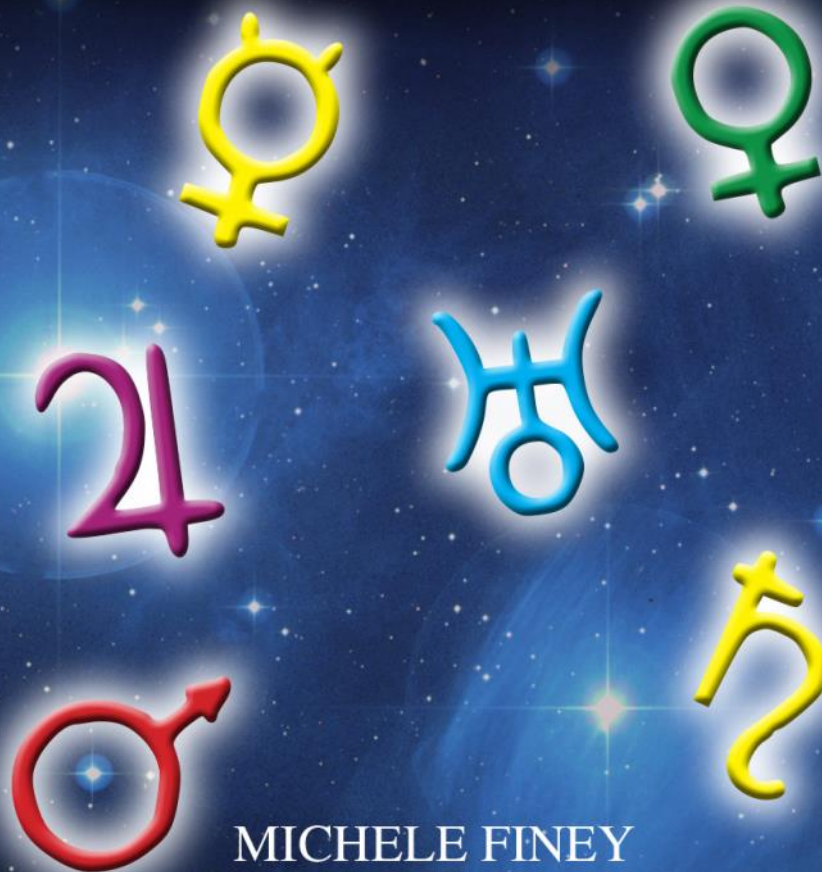

2025 is a yin year, so the Green Snake is likely to bring a shift towards introspection and careful planning. Green snakes can be secretive, and tend to hide their emotions, so watch for negative feelings of manipulation and resentment.

INAUGURATION

One doesn't have to be an astrologer to see that the US is heading for a cliff. It seems to me that it won't be long before many people will come to their senses and realise what they have done in electing a madman.

This inauguration chart highlights the US Chiron return once more, exposing the country's wounds and calling for healing.

Transiting Jupiter is about to cross into the Sibly 7th house, calling other nations to push back against US policies like tariffs which are set to be introduced. The rest of the world and the global economy is bigger than the US.

Transiting Mars, still retrograde, is crossing the US Mercury, so heated debate is also a feature here.

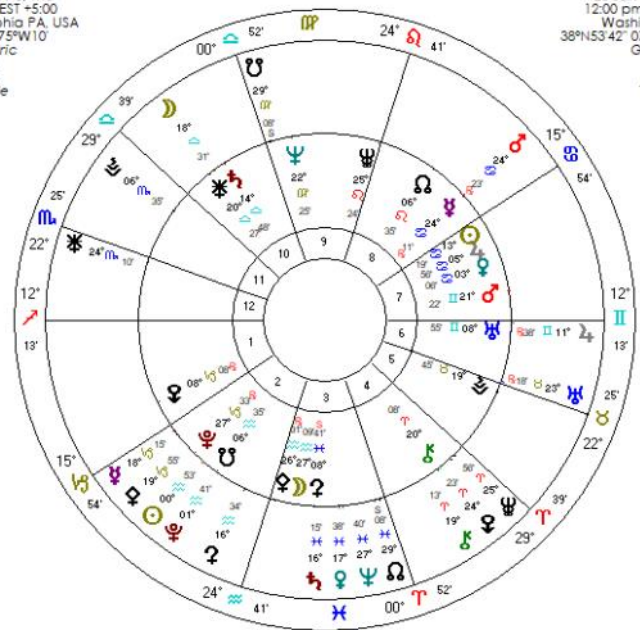

The transiting Moon is involved too, moving over Saturn and Juno, marking this sad occasion, especially for women. The Moon is also opposing Chiron, once again calling for healing.

The Sun and Pluto are within a degree of one another on 20 January, fuelling volatility but also elevating awareness and truth telling. Sun-Pluto conjunctions often bring to light those things that are hidden or unconscious. They point to the 'elephant in the room' that no one is willing to acknowledge. Those who do point to it, are often ostracised, but the truth eventually becomes apparent and obvious.

Transiting Pluto will cross the US South Node within two years, signalling an upwelling of powerful emotions and a push for transformation. The divisions in the US are extreme and polarising, with each state having different laws and values.

In March, Neptune will start its Aries ingress, hitting the Sibly IC where it is already undermining the constitution and social fabric.

Significantly, the American Civil War which began in 1861, started just as Neptune was crossing 0 Aries and the IC of the Sibly chart 165 years ago. Neptune in Aries will stand up for its beliefs and fight for causes, whatever they may be.

This time around, Saturn will play a role too as it too crosses into Aries and over the Sibly chart IC. This ongoing transit will play out over the coming years.
