I am happy to announce I'll be attending the Clunes Booktown Festival on March 22-23. For those interested, I'll be located in stall C, one of the marquees where I'll have my books, calendars, organisers and gift cards. It's a great event with author talks and fun activities.

Venus stations retrograde at the start of this month. This regular cycle stirs our inner dialogue. It's a time to reassess the merits of our connections and commitments. As Mars has recently turned direct, he is keen to get going, while Venus takes a step aside to re-engage with her core values. The timing is noteworthy, and suggests a regrouping, shifting energy, a period of preparation. This is not gender specific. We all have Venus and Mars somewhere in our birth charts.

The Venus-Mars cycle is complex. They each have a role to play in self expression, the process of evaluation and our relationships.

VIRGO FULL MOON-LUNAR ECLIPSE

Lately it seems like every lunation focuses our attention on a specific planet/archetype. This time Saturn is in the frame, as it closely aligns with the Sun and Moon.

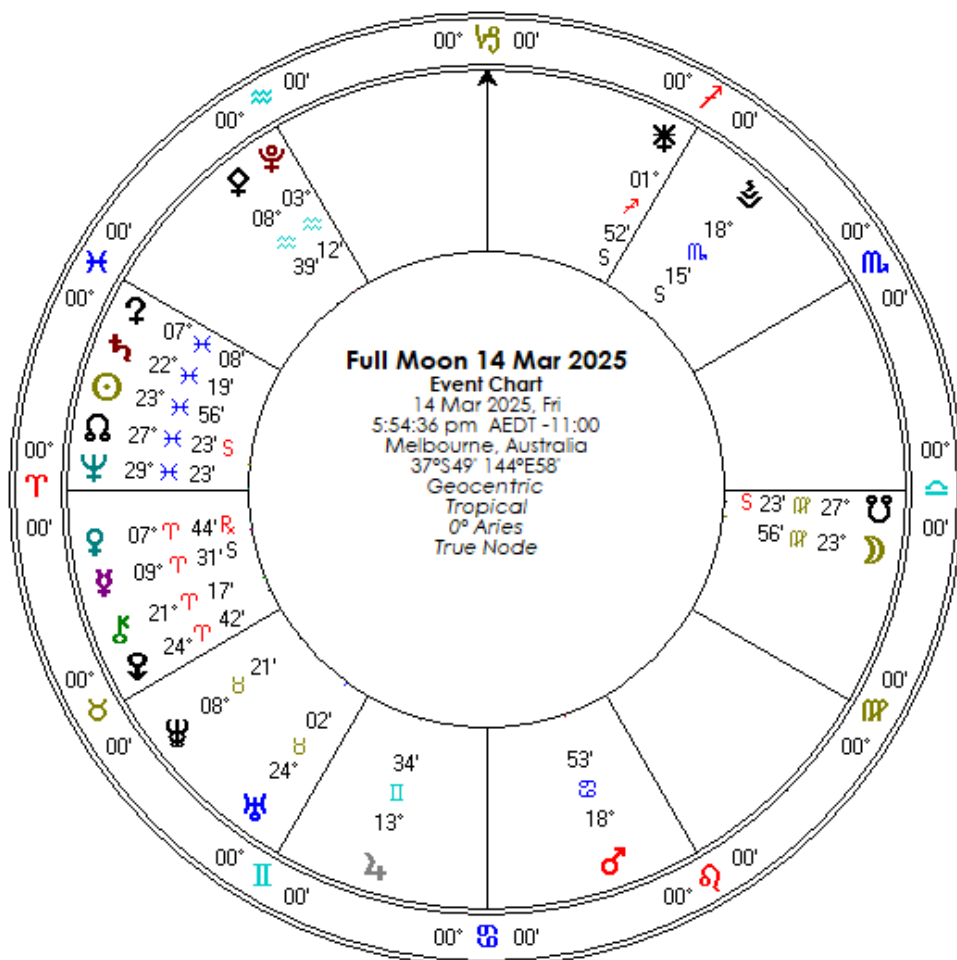

Saturn has the habit of punishing those who transgress his ethics and rules.

Mercury stations retrograde close to Venus in Aries. With Mars now direct, there is gathering momentum towards a shift in dialogue. This is a time for introspection. Virgo with the South Node knows what is right and how to plan ahead. This is a total lunar eclipse.

Neptune too is once again highlighted. With symbolic associations to Pisces, it joins the Moon's North Node and is on the verge of shifting into Aries later this month.

One of Saturn's key themes is about boundaries which includes knowing where they are and how to determine our own limitations. With Saturn conjunct the Sun and commencing a new synodic cycle, Saturn elevates our conscious awareness of what we can and can't do, and to say "no".

Saturn also asks us to behave ethically and responsibly.

ARIES NEW MOON-SOLAR ECLIPSE

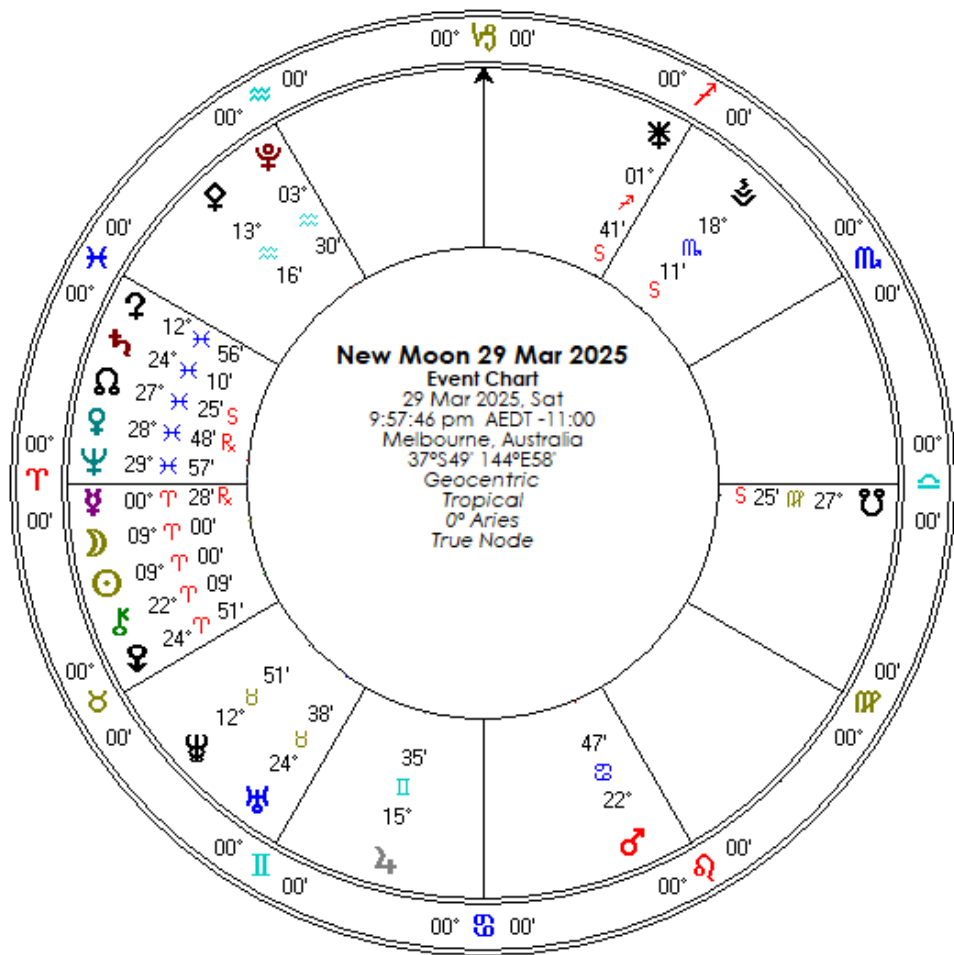

The day after this New Moon, Neptune crosses into Aries. This is likely to shape our collective experiences for the next decade and beyond.

Late last year I spoke about the symbols, themes and history of this cycle. If you want to take a closer look at what Neptune in Aries might deliver over the coming 13 years, you can get the recording here.

Venus, Saturn and the North Node join Neptune in late Pisces, so while this is an Aries New Moon, there is a lot of unfinished Pisces business.

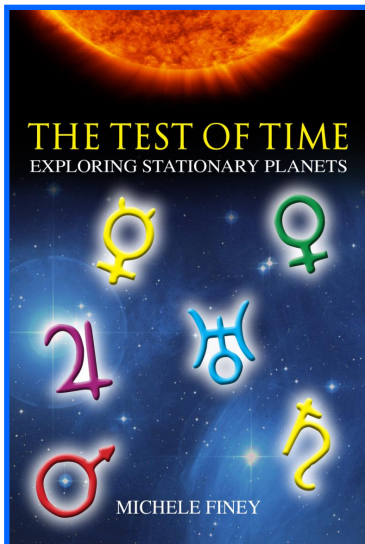

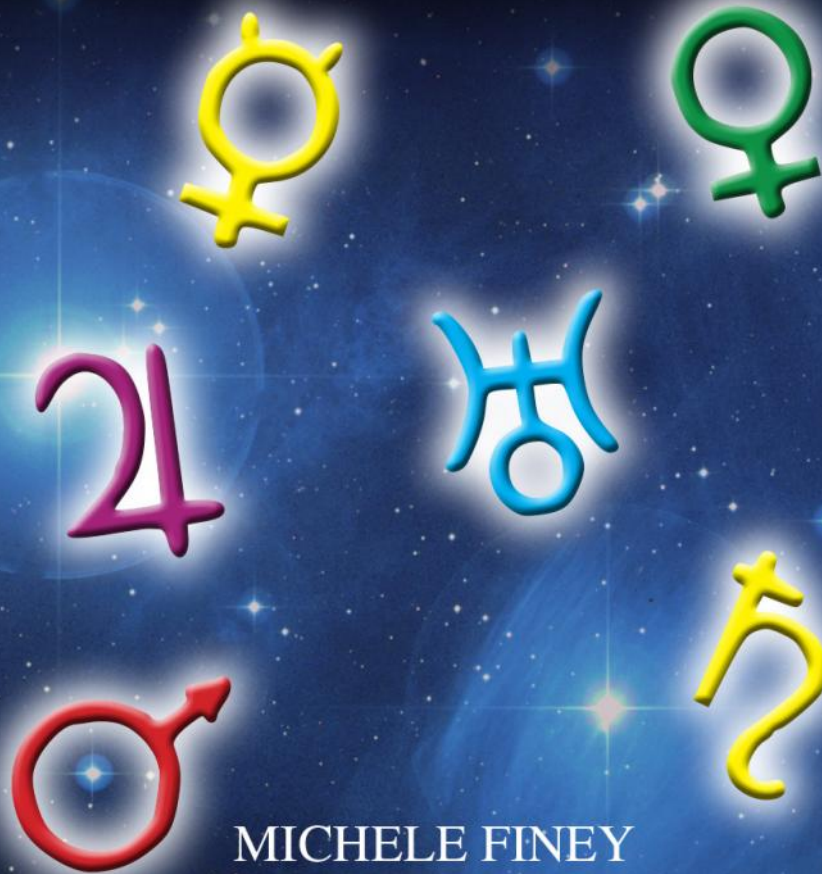

Politically, the Saturn-Neptune conjunction which is approaching in 2026, reframes political agendas. Political issues will be in play throughout this year and next. Meanwhile, Mars in Cancer is squaring Chiron and Eris, frustrating Mars's natural drive and energy, plus

Mars is still moving slowly after his recent retrograde cycle. Though keen to forge ahead now that we have Aries in the frame, these aspects and all the Pisces mutability is keeping things fluid. Mars trine Saturn will invite stability and patience. This is a partial solar eclipse.

This book details my research into the 32-year cycle of Venus and Mars.

The symbolic connection between the celestial lovers is mirrored by their interaction as metals copper (Venus) and iron (Mars). This passionate exchange creates life on this planet and has immense impact across social settings and generations.

EQUINOX & NEPTUNE IN ARIES

Neptune will be a key player in all the Equinoxes and Solstices for the foreseeable future. The outer planets and their cycles represent global themes and trends. The last time Neptune shifted into Aries it was within days of the first shots fired in the American Civil War. You don't need to be an astrologer to see the significance of this recurring cycle. It may take a while for Neptune in Aries to gain momentum, but this ingress is sure to be a significant turning point in US history.

This Equinox chart sees Mars squaring Chiron and Eris, highlighting the discord and suffering that many people are experiencing. This aspect also inspires healing. Chiron helps us to share our stories and forge connections with others who have had similar experiences.

This aspect suggests that those who have been ignored, overlooked or excluded will band together and make their voices heard.
